“ Joe was one of the most calm easygoing guys I worked with at FWPD. He helped train me and other female officers who were new to the department and always made us feel welcomed. I was very fortunate to have the honor of knowing and working with Joe and always viewed him as a leader.

“ I was very fortunate to have Joe for a Patrol Partner during and after the Team Police experiment. He was a relaxed, humorous gentleman. But beneath that relaxed man's exterior was the heart and soul of a Champion.

That was my best most enjoyable time in a very volatile environment.

I know Jesus was waiting for Joe with a hand shake and a greeting of "Good job Joe".

See you on the other side Joe.

“ Joe was about as laid back as you can get. His calm demeanor kept things in perspective. I really enjoyed working with Joe.
