“ Sooo many memories and stories. Loved the restaurant and all of the family. Watched the boys grow up there. We lived in Fort Worth, so the first time I went there was with a boyfriend's boss and family and we became regular customers. Introduced the next boyfriend to Chow Soon and we were regulars. Then the next one who became my husband of 31 years. So boy friends came and went, but Chow Soon was the constant! Best pepper steak, fried won ton, almond gai ding (requested without bok choy, which Jimmy refused because it was important to the flavor, but he would chop it in bigger pieces for me so I could pick it out). The special invitation to the Chinese New Year Party with items not on the menu was very special for us. The time that we came and the big table had a table cloth and we kidded Virginia about our not having one and she said to wait for the guest coming in - Martina Navratilova came for dinner - star struck. The whole family was amazing and we have missed you all ever since. So sorry we can't come to the services, but know that you are loved, prayed for and missed. Reading all of the comments tells you that if you ever had a doubt.

“ Jimmy was one of the most generous man we have ever met. He was an honor guest in our family gathering. All of us was fighting for his famous “bao”. Our house was like a bakery store. I still remembered when he had all the pastries in the back of his truck to be distributed to everyone after dinner. He looked like someone who was selling stolen goods from the truck. We enjoyed our casino trips, dinner celebrations and baking lesson. In addition, I will miss the fresh fish after his fishing trip or called me to pick up my dinner on the way home from work. His memories will live forever. Let the good memories of Jimmy who provided us with comfort and guidance.
